Credit Guidelines

Pre-service training (before you can get your license) = 36 hours/person (up to 12 months before license is issued).
First year and ongoing training = 24 hours/person (this is done on a Jan – Dec calendar year)

The following is a general idea of how many units/hours topics are worth. More importantly, parents and workers should talk about the topics decide together how many hours were earned based on time spent learning, etc.

FW Modules = 2 training units (can be exceptions)

Cluster Meetings = hour for hour (except holidays, picnics, etc.)

Books = generally 2 units (can be exceptions)

Video- and audio-tapes = hour for hour (A two-hour video would be worth two units)

Pamphlets/magazine articles/internet sites = .25 hours or more

Respite – for preservice training only = 2 credits/child up to 6 credits

Meeting with a veteran FW family – for preservice training only = hour for hour
